Deal, Walmer and Kingsdown Community and Charity Events and Trips

This is a Facebook group with more than 300 members and anyone can join. Members can mention places they may like to visit or I will search for places/venues which may be of interest. I then arrange a coach and date for a day trip at the best possible price I can get. Members join us for the day trip after paying their seat money. Any profit from the trips is given to charity at the end of the year. Our main charity for this year is Deal Allstars Disability Football Team. For example we have been to Brighton for £15, London Xmas shopping and Xmas lights tour for £15, Cite Europe for £22.50 and Harry Potter Studio Tour for £41. We not only donate to charity but also enable people to get out and about and make new friends along the way. We also do charity quizzes. On August 2nd at 10am we are holding a fun day at the village hall. We hope to have games and various stalls of all types both inside and out. The Police mobile unit will be there for you to visit. There will be charity stalls and food and refreshments. For more information look on Facebook at Deal, Walmer and Kingsdown Community Charity Events, email georgefranklin@live.co.uk or ring me on 07733325185. George Franklin

CLUB, SOCIETY AND VILLAGE REPORTS

GREAT MONGEHAM SOCIETY

A cold, drizzly afternoon didn't auger well for our first outdoor meeting of the year. However by the evening the rain had stopped and it was marginally warmer so a dozen stalwarts made their way to the Chairman's garden for a game of bat and trap. Before play started we all admired the chairman's kit built Beauford car. After the game, which was won 16 -10 by the team ably led by Penny, we enjoyed hotdogs washed down by lashings of - well, not lemonade! The next meeting is on July 17th when we visit the Ripple Steam Brewery. Please let Moyra Carey know if you are going (379306) and meet at the village hall at 7.15. (JR)

GREAT MONGEHAM HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

The annual Barbecue and potato weigh in took place on the village green on a very pleasant June evening. Alan Ford and Carol Whittaker served up a variety of burgers and sausages which members found very much to their liking. There were 55 entries for the big weigh in. The winner was Sue Ford with just under 3lbs from one seed potato (Vanessa was the seed used), second was Keith Atkinson and third Steve Pitcher. Two members tied for the booby prize with a 'nil' return (one happened to be the member who won the Cup for the most points in the Show at the previous meeting).

Prizes were presented by Chairman Peter Aplin who thanked all who took part. Pumpkin plants were distributed with the weigh in scheduled for November 5th at the AGM.

Details were given of the Club's trip to Wisley and we were reminded of the Rose and Sweet Pea show on July 5th. The next meeting is on 2nd July. (JEB)

SAINT MARTIN'S WI
