Garden Party

I would like to thank all who attended the garden party at 58 Mongeham Road on Saturday 19th July, both customers and helpers. The afternoon was blessed with beautiful sunshine. About 70 people plus children attended and enjoyed the event. Special thanks go to Jan Anton's young dancers who entertained, as well as the St Martin's Hand bell ringers (in spite of being handicapped through illness, making the team two ringers short). The grand total raised was in excess of £700.00 which goes toward the running expenses of St Martin's Church. (PH)

CLUB, SOCIETY AND VILLAGE REPORTS

GREAT MONGEHAM SOCIETY

The next meeting date at Europa Nursery, Hills Court Road, Ash has been changed to 14th August. Please let Moyra know if you will be attending – the nursery has to know numbers to provide disposable suits.

David Cliff a partner at Ripple Steam Brewery greeted 20 members of the Great Mongeham Society for a visit on Thursday 19th July where we were given an in depth description of brewing and a history of the materials used such as barley and hops. David plans to grow hops in the large field at the front of the farm. For one of our members, Barbara Spence, it was a nostalgic visit as she had in the past worked at the farm for over 25 years. Everyone was offered a pint or two of the best beer and thanks were given by the chairman Steve Chappell. (DK)

GREAT MONGEHAM HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

The Great Mongeham Horticultural Society held their annual Rose and Sweet Pea Show in the Parish Hall on the same day as The Village Fun Day which meant a lot of visitors came into the Hall to see a great display of Sweet Peas and Roses. There was a delightful perfume as you entered the Hall especially from the beautiful Sweet Peas. There was also a good variety of garden flowers, soft fruit and vegetables on display. The Cup for most points in Show went to Marlene Walker with Alan Ford winning the Cup for most points in the Sweet Pea Class and a special prize for his sweet peas. The Judges were impressed with the display and there were favourable comments from visitors. The next meeting is on August 6th. Janet Bryant's talk will be on 'Legends of Christmas plants'. (JEB)

SAINT MARTIN'S WI

At the last meeting June Brewer spoke about the Marlowe Theatre and the enthusiastic & dedicated members of The Marlowe Friends, giving much information from the original Roman theatre with 6,000 seats to the new Marlowe 2011. There are outings, visits, and discount tickets for all Friends with a new brochure out in August. The next meeting is on August 14th - a strawberry tea in the hall from 6.45 pm (PS-B)

VILLAGE DESIGN STATEMENT

This is to give notice of the AGM to be held on Tuesday 9th September at 7.30 pm in the Upper Room of St. Martin's Church, Great. Mongeham. All welcome. (SB)

ROUNDERS

There will be a game of rounders on the green on 3rd August 2pm, weather permitting. Everyone welcome, bring a blanket and a picnic and join us. (TR)

MONGEHAM CHILDRENS DANCE AND THEATRE CLUB

has now broken up for the summer holidays. The children have had an extremely busy year with exams, medals tests, festivals and shows including a highly successful Pantomime, Sleeping Beauty. They have also taken part in many show productions and finished the Summer Term by performing at Rev. Peter Hambrook's charity garden party. On the same evening they will be dancing and acting in this year's Summer Variety Show with the New Ash Players and also playing their part on a float in the Deal Carnival. The new term starts on Monday September 8th, with a new Baby Ballet class from age 2 years. All our dancers, actors and singers will be performing Totally Dance 3 at the Winter Gardens Theatre in March 2015. All enquiries please phone Jan 07760150233 or antondance66@gmail.com. Theatre Club enquiries to Michelle on 07595430180. (JA)
